

GREENTOPIA: IDEAS, CONCEPTS AND INSTITUTIONAL PROPOSALS

October 11-12, 2019

Friday, October 11

Room 3D

| | |
|---------|--------------------------|
| 08.45 – | Welcome and Introduction |
| 09.00 | Department of Philosophy |

INSTITUTIONS FOR GREENTOPIA?

| | |
|---------|--|
| 09.00 – | Stephen Gardiner: |
| 10.00 | Governing Greentopia? |
| 10.00 – | Angela Kallhoff: |
| 11.00 | Institutions for Joint Environmental Action. Fallacies and Prospects |

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee Break

CULTIVATION OF THE LAND AND CARE FOR NATURE

| | |
|---------|---------------------------------|
| 11.30 – | Paul Thompson: |
| 12.30 | Greentopia: The Agrarian Vision |

12.30 – 14.30 Lunch at Stadtkind

| | |
|---------|--|
| 14.30 – | Andreas Hetzel: |
| 15.30 | Why Should We Save Species from Extinction? An Ignorance-Based Perspective |
| 15:30 – | Wolfgang Palme: |
| 16:30 | How to Grow Vegetables More Efficiently: New Concepts for a Sustainable, Diverse, Seasonal and Consumer Oriented Agriculture |

16.30 – 17:00 Coffee Break

GREENTOPIA: THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK

| | |
|---------|---|
| 17:00 – | Tracey Skillington: |
| 18:00 | A Critique of the Concept of Limit in Dominant Institutional Approaches to Environmental Problems: Toward a Deeper Framework of Justice |
| 18.00 – | Roundtable |
| 19.00 | |

Saturday, October 12

| | Room 3D | Room 3F |
|---------|---|--|
| | Alternative Concepts, Anthropocene, Who Survives? | Arts, Human-Plant Relation, Plants and their Place in Literature |
| | Chair: Sarah Espinosa | Chair: Kathrin von Allmen |
| 09.00 – | Aleksandra Brylska (Skype) | Jennifer Hankin |
| 09.45 | Wasteland Full of Hope. Reflection on the Future of Contaminated Environments | Ecotopia as Place: Contemporary Installation Art and Environmental Discovery |

| | | |
|------------------|--|--|
| 09.45 – 10.30 | Elias König Islands Are Lies Decolonizing the Greentopian Lexicon | Isabel Kranz Literary and Cultural Plant Studies: Botanophilia and the Utopia of a Common Green Language |
| 10.30 – 11.15 | Lucille Richard Why Should We Fight for a Livable Future? — Environmentalism and the Forgotten Political Problem of Justifying Human Survival | Magdalena Zamorska Plant Ethics for Arts: Posthumous Intimacies and Looking for a Plant-In-U-S |
| 11.15 – 12.00 | Eugenio Luciano Can We Envision a Greentopia in the Anthropocene? | Duván Rivera Arcila The Yage Plant and its Multiple Relations with Human, Nonhuman and other Entities in Colombian Amazon Piedmont from High and Low Putumayo |

12.00 – 13.30 Lunch

| | Room 3D | Room 3F |
|------------------|---|--|
| | Ecotopia, Reparation, Paradise Engineering | Climate Ethics, Responsibility, Future Generations and Democracy |
| | Chair: Eva Bobst | Chair: Wolfgang Damoser |
| 13.30 – 14.15 | David Hall (Skype) Mending the Web of Life: Producing Value through Reparation Ecology | Kathrin von Allmen Climate Change and State Responsibility: An Algorithm for Assigning Remedial Responsibilities |
| 14.15 – 15.00 | Philipp P. Thapa Ecotopianism: A Philosophical Conception | Sarah Espinosa On the Actuality of Property Concepts with Regard to Scarce Resources |
| 15.00 – 15.45 | Eze Paez A Kantian Ethics of Paradise Engineering | Geraldine Ng Climate Action Heroes |
| 15.45 – 16.30 | Fritz Gillerke (Skype) On the Democratic Legitimacy of Representing Future Generations | |

16.30 – 16.45 Coffee Break

| | Room 3D |
|------------------|---|
| | Chair: Linnea Kralik |
| 16.45 – 17.15 | Statement by Fridays-for- Future-Group (https://www.fridaysforfuture.at/) |
| 17.15 – 17.30 | Final Discussion and Closing Words |

Optional Dinner

universität wien

Department of Philosophy
Universitätsstrasse 7 (NIG)
1010 Vienna, Austria

Organizing Team

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Angela Kallhoff; Wolfgang Damoser BA; Eva Bobst MA; Sarah Espinosa MA; Linnea Kralik MA